Flame Ignites Fire Of Everyday Life

From the darkness emerges a tiny spark
. . . small and minute yet glowing vibrantly in perpetual brightness.
It beckons all who come near it
. . . taunting . . .
. . . and draws them into the newborn flame with magnetic force . . .
setting them afire in spirit . . .
it begins to grow and expand . . .
dedication and thirst for knowledge are devoured as its fuel
. . . work and challenge are its bellows
. . . stoked and fed by students
. . . faculty stirring up the coals
. . . it imprints the indelible brand of burning love
. . . for learning
. . . for sports
. . . for clubs and drives
. . . for teachers and friends
. . . and God and country and Central Catholic High.
. . . from tiny spark to newborn flame
. . . the first of spirit grows . . .
until it is finally consummated . . .
and we become . . .
the glorious, blinding blaze . . .

Dual-Crowning, Dance Shatter Irish Tradition

Royalty Reigns At '69 Homecoming

Homecoming 1968-69 witnessed for the first time an intermingling of old and new traditions.

An exciting and emotion-filled week for the five candidates and their managers reached its climax on October 24 at Rogers Stadium when spirited varsity cheerleader Ruth Konczal was chosen by the student body as Central's new Queen, succeeding retiring Janice Hite.

A new tradition was established on October 25 as the first Homecoming Dance, "Autumn Fantasy," was held at the Lucas County Recreation Center. The Rec Center's Hall of Fame was the scene as two of the football tri-captains, William Montrie and Michael Scannell, recrowned Queen Ruth. Later, escorted by manager Michael McNamee she led a waltz with her attendants and their escorts joining in.

Gracing the royal court were Carolyn Borgess, Colleen Corrigan, Lynn Lanzinger, and Ann McCarty escorted by Joseph Szenderski, Michael Massa, Richard Perz, and Eugene Nowak, respectively.

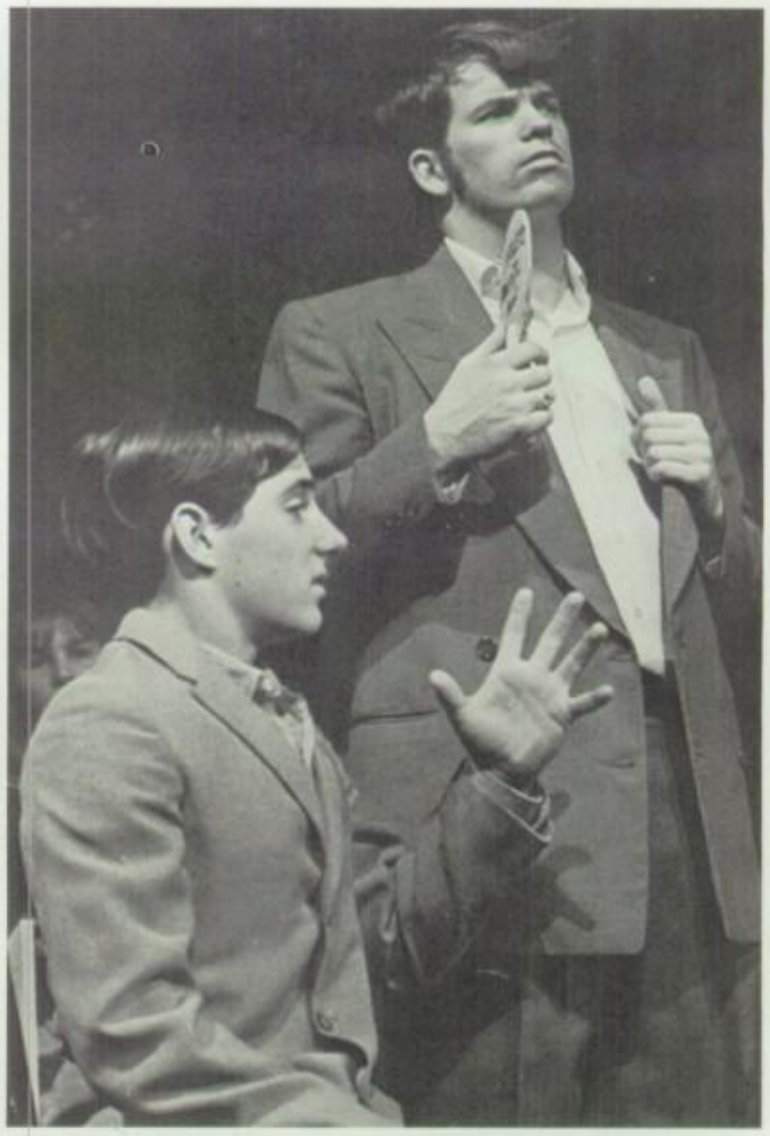
Patiently hearing her husband extol his virtues is Mrs. Matthew Harrison Brady. The mayor (Geoffrey Grubb), his wife (Jane Wawrzyniak), and a villager (Kathleen Jaworski) gather round.

Henry Drummond emphatically stresses a point of view to an unimpressed Matthew Harrison Brady while Sillers (Richard Binkowski) and Tom Davenport (Robert Wilson) watch with interest.



Testifying what he has been taught in school in regard to the evolution of man is Howard (David Bailey), as lawyer Brady ponders over the evidence.

'Inherit The Wind' Exhibits Talent

Tense courtroom atmosphere invaded the auditorium as Central presented its annual senior play, Inherit The Wind, November 15, 16, and 17.

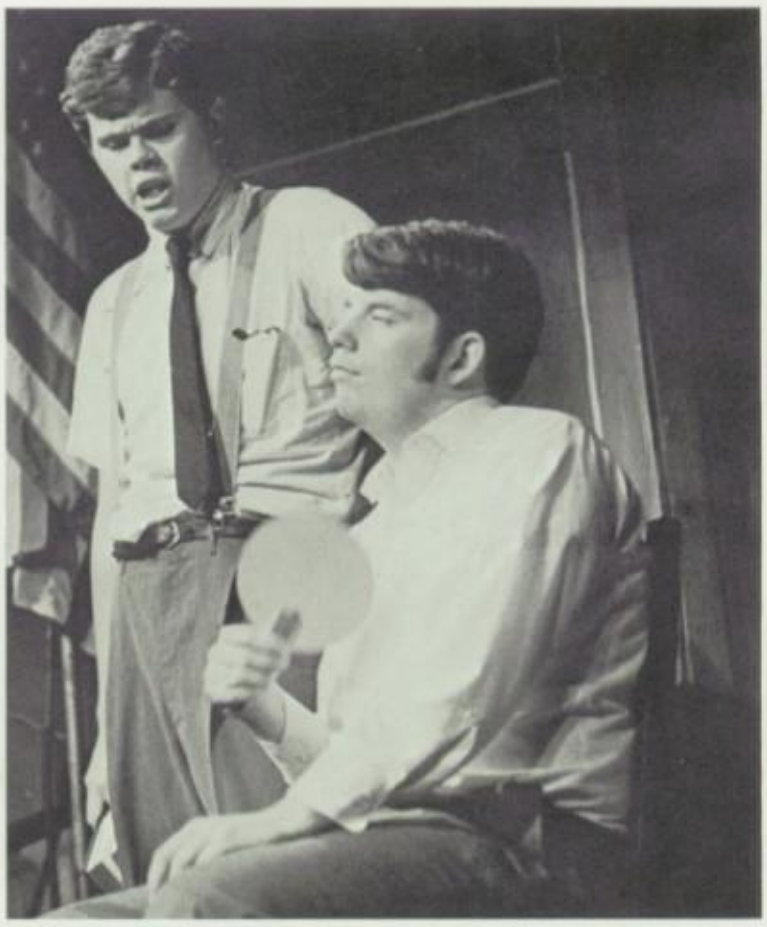
This comedy-drama was based on the true story of a schoolteacher who was put on trial during the early 1900's for teaching the principles of the theory of evolution to his pupils.

William Conklin portrayed the prosecuting attorney, Matthew Harrison Brady. James Wright depicted the lawyer for the defense, Henry Drummond. Richard Fournier assumed the character of Bertram Cates, the schoolteacher, while Mary Jane Demski was his girlfriend, Rachel Brown. Ann McCarty enacted the part of the dutiful and patient wife of the overbearing Mr. Brady.

Under the guidance of Edward Mical, members of the stage crew exerted time and effort to construct the various sets needed for the production. Scenic artists, directed by Suzanne Sobel, devoted long hours after school in order to make the presentation a memorable one.

Bertram Cates contemplates the information given him by Henry Drummond on his right to appeal. Rachel Brown cautiously waits for a sign of Bertram's decision to defend his beliefs.

Reverend Jeremiah Brown (James Rozek) registers surprise when E. K. Hornbeck (Timothy Kitz) announces that Henry Drummond will be the defense attorney.



Drummond intensely questions Brady on whether creation could have lasted millions of years.

Drag, Prom 'Spice Up' Social Scene

VARSITY DRAG

"Silver Sleigh Bells" jingled throughout Sylvan Hall the evening of December 30 as the annual Varsity Drag was held.

The dance, a senior project, was under the direction of chairmen David Ember and Bernita Borer. Sr. Mary de Paul SND, Senior Class advisor, aided the various committees in making preparations for the event.

Musical moments for the semi-formal affair were provided by the Don Lee Orchestra and Nobody's Children, a group of college singers.

PROM

"Enchanting Emerald Isle" was the theme of the Junior-Senior Prom held May 9 at the new Masonic Temple.

Juniors, aided by class moderator Mrs. Dorothy Brown, sponsored this formal affair. Co-chairmen Vickie O'Connor and Joseph Wernert worked long hours to achieve perfection.

The Johnny Knorr Orchestra enlivened the dance with renditions of favorite musical tunes.

Students received hints about what to wear from watching the Prom Preview.

Admiring the floor decorations at the Varsity Drag are Janet Witko and Doug Lightner, her date from Miami University. Centerpieces such as the coin fountain helped create the proper atmosphere to make this year's Christmas dance an outstanding success.

Mary Pat Biggs flashes the winning smile that helped earn for her the title of Prom Queen 1968. An elated Pat Murnen beams proudly over his date's popularity with those who attended the dance.

Bernita Borer and Geoff Grubb share a quiet moment while dancing to a luring melody.

Nimue bewitches Merlyn with her voice in "Follow Me".

Guinevere and Lancelot offer "If Ever I Would Leave You".

King Arthur conveys his idea for a round table to Guinevere.

Members of the royal court honor the King and Queen.

"Don't Let It Be Forgot That Once There Was A Spot"

"Camelot", the legendary tale of King Arthur, Lady Guinevere, Sir Lancelot, and Arthur's Knights of the Round Table, was musically unfolded as Central's annual operetta.

In a switch to Start Auditorium, the musical was presented on two successive weekends for a total of six performances. Elaborate costumes and sets set the mood for the show.

The royal court gathers for "The Lusty Month of May".

With the coming of May, the month of Our Lady, Central holds its annual May Convocation. This cherished school tradition is a time of adoration and thanksgiving to the Blessed Virgin.

Spring Specials Fulfill Dreams

MAY CROWNING

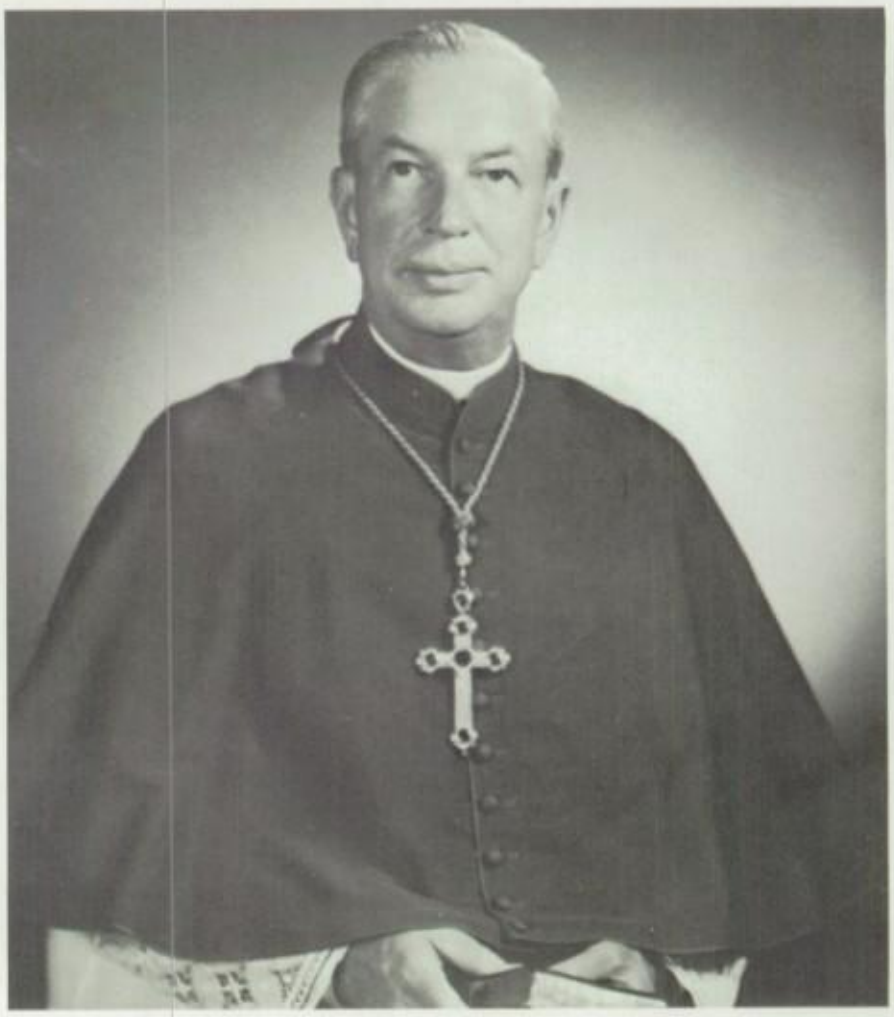
Mary, Queen of May, once again had her day as students and faculty participated in the yearly May Crowning. Held on campus, everyone partook of the ceremony in some way.

GRADUATION

On Friday, June 13, the vastness of the Sports Arena set the scene for one of life's greatest moments—graduation, the end of a beginning.

Dreams were fulfilled, hearts were broken, and new goals were set as 484 seniors took yet another step toward that ultimate fulfillment —an unexplainable something leading them onward.

Rt. Rev. John A. Donovan, Bishop of Toledo, offers his warmest congratulations to the entire graduating class.



Pride and sadness swell uncontrollably in the hearts of all graduates, when they first glimpse that long-awaited prize—a diploma. That treasure is now, at long last, a dream come true.

That magic moment—June 13 . . . ! Four years of work and play have come to an end, never to be relived. Memories, however, do linger forever.

Officers Encourage Junior Participation

Joseph Wernert—President

A good percentage of Central's pep and vitality resounds from the class of 1970. Unforgettable events encountered by juniors during the year such as homework and projects, anticipation of class rings, realizing their stand at the Senior Farewell Assembly, the junior prom, all manifest their ever-glowing enthusiasm.

Old acquaintances are strengthened and new ones are sought as juniors add memories to their high school years.

Miss Diane Saholsky explains the cultural background and history of the German people to her first-year German class. From the basic fundamentals and pronunciations of German to the every-day dialogues, these students progress in their understanding of this modern-day language. Other aids used in the teaching of German are records and tapes. During the Yuletide season, actual caroling is performed at Bronson Place, St. Anthony's Villa, and the Friary.

Spanish I students of Mrs. Mary Reinbolt learn to apply classroom techniques for a modern-day dialogue. Guido Valdes, Stanley Kajfasz, and Nancy Avery perform to the amusement of their classmates.

Tumbling is a recreational exercise which entails poise, grace, and agility. Nancy Gleason, a member of the seventh period gym class, performs one of the basic gymnastic exercises—the headstand. Mrs. Maureen Verb helps Nancy keep her balance.

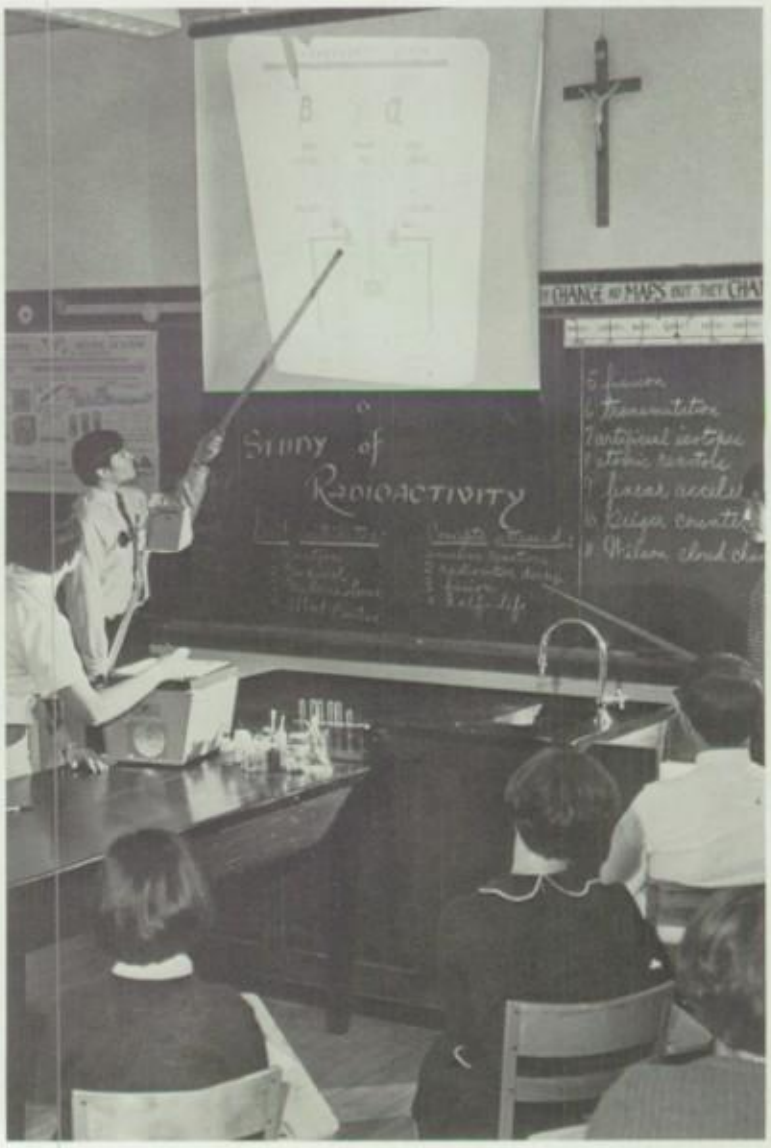
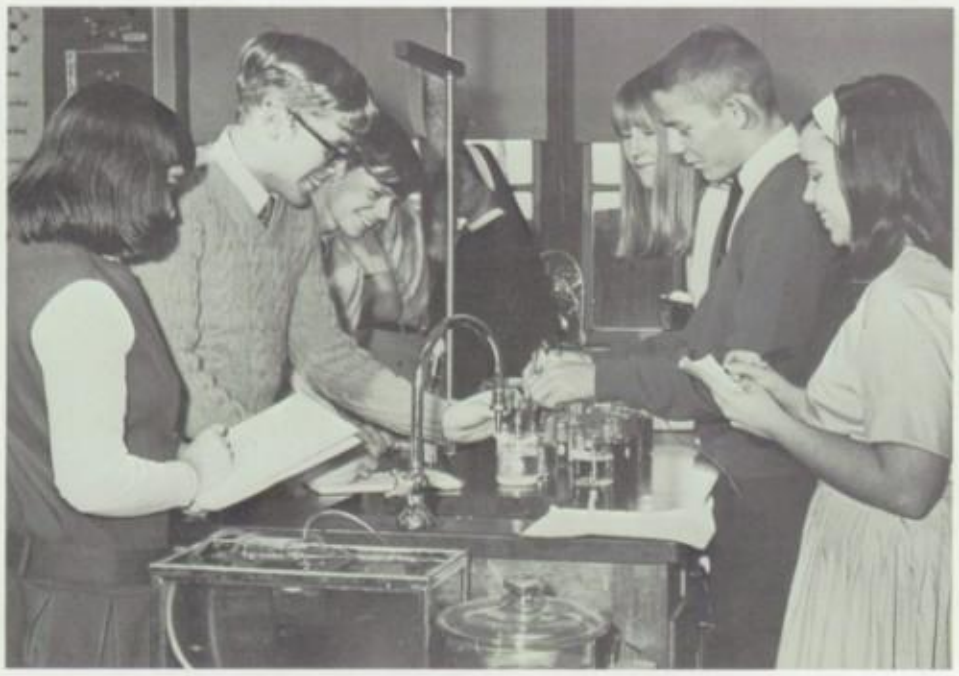
Physics is an absorbing science as these young men illustrate by their deep concentration. Working together on an experiment, Cyril Masiulaniec, Gary Dutkiewicz, and Jim Finkler combine their knowledge and experience to hazard a guess.

Students learn from one another in Sr. M. Gemma's sixth period physical science class. While Judy Markos explains the material on the board, Joe Posey and Mark Boes make use of the overhead projector.



Sr. M. Arsenia OSF is known for her ability to infuse the unusual into her classes. Judging by the looks on Leona Anasiewicz, Fred Bercher, Gerald Kubicki, Mary Jo Rabara, Jim Berning, and Pat Chajavec's faces, her teaching method is successful.



As Sr. M. Mark OSF looks over Linda Todorowski's biology experiment data, Beverly Mutchler re-checks her microscope to ascertain that her observations and calculations have been recorded accurately.

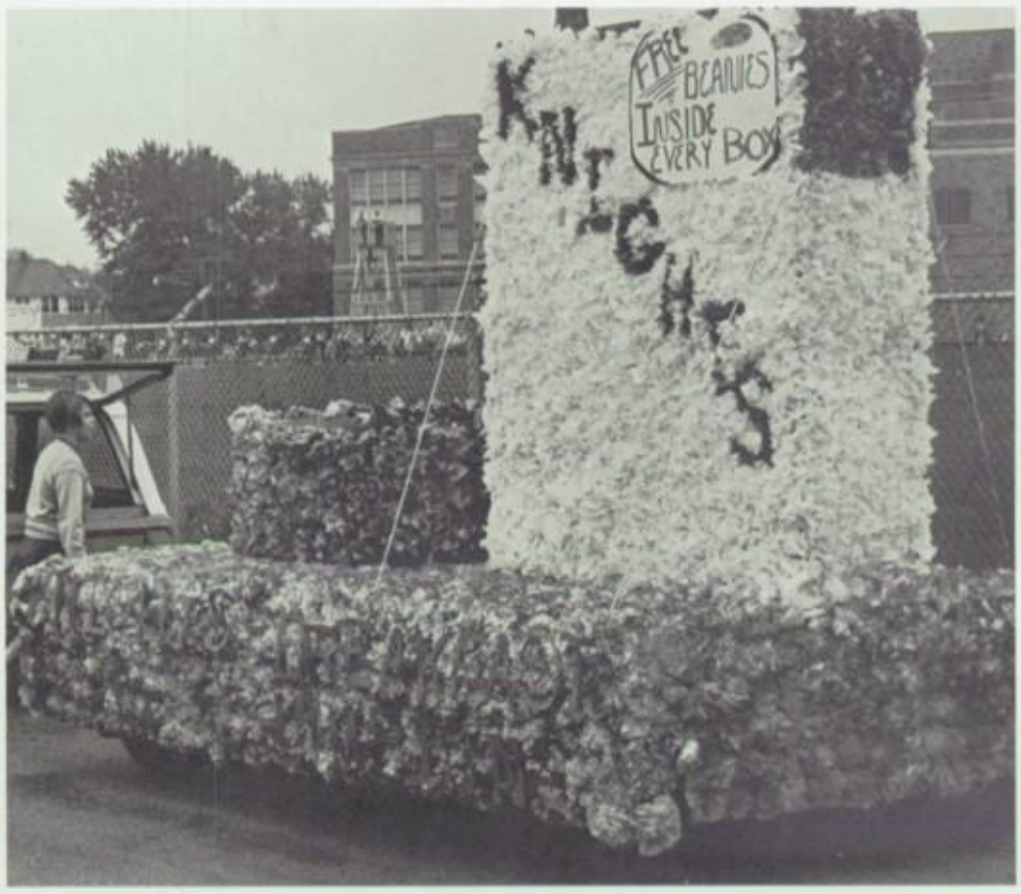
Enthusiastic Students Display Floats



Spirit is known to flow through the halls of Central. The Sophomore Class carries this spirit even further by publicly displaying an unusual but fitting float for the annual Central-St. Francis football game. The sophomores accomplished a fine job presenting their pride in CCHS.

Initiators of much of the get-up-and-go characteristic of Central's Junior Class present the completed product of much hard work and effort: their float, Blitz The Knights!

Frosh Forge Ahead

Through Leadership

Kenneth Nisch—President

Freshmen use their initial high school year to gain experience and discover what Central is all about. English projects and Math I, the election of class officers, daily progression in age and wisdom, reveal the high aspirations to be achieved by the class of 1972.

As the strange faces become familiar ones, freshmen derive a sense of unity and together their physical and spiritual goals import true value.

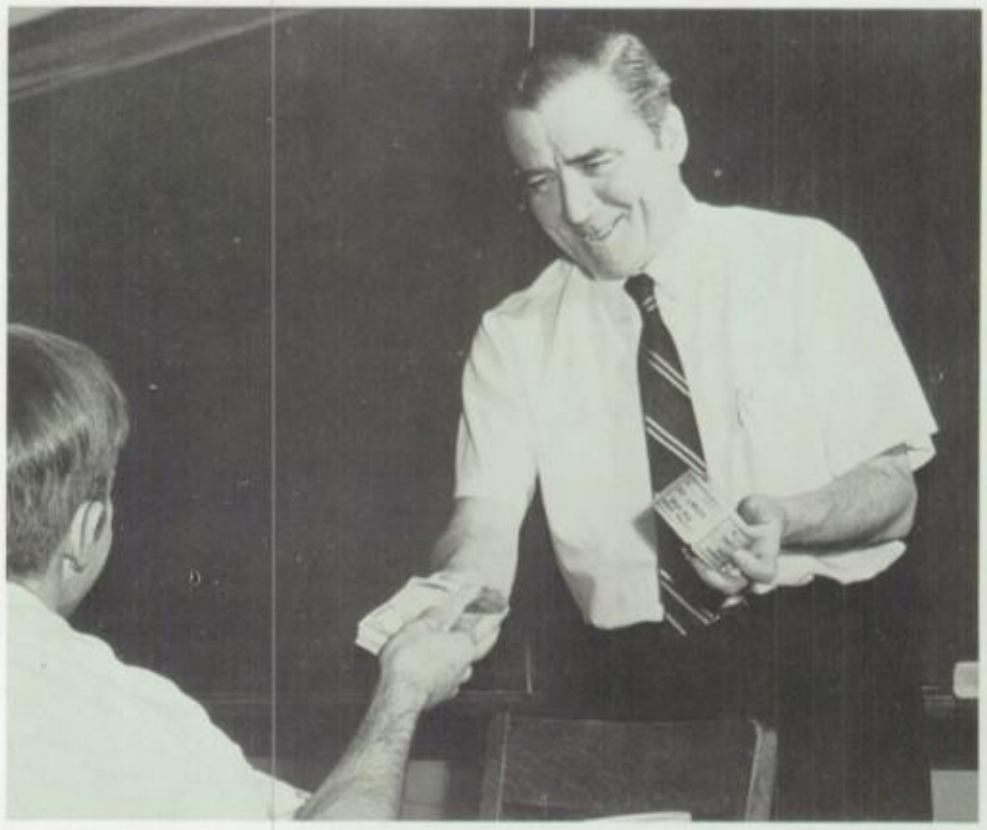
The 1968-69 Fighting Irish

Irish End Season With 8-2 Record

Mr. Dever

Since 1959, Central has been privileged to have a genuinely dedicated man as Athletic Director. Mr. Timothy Dever has generated both spirit and determination during his nine years at Central. As a result of his enthusiasm and vigor Central has attained a very well known and respected sports program.

In addition to directing Central's sports program, Mr. Dever is kept busy teaching both Government and World History.



Mr. Timothy Dever, 1968-69 Athletic Director.

Varsity Football

With a fine nucleus of players drilled by a determined staff of coaches, the 1968 Fighting Irish football team brought home another successful record.

It was a year touched by almost every emotion. There were tense moments as exemplified by Central's 3-0 opening game against St. John's and, of course, the 2-0 thrill against Rogers for Homecoming.

Most of the season Central enjoyed happy times, as the team reeled off five straight victories including a big win over St. Francis which recaptured the Irish Knight. Central won its first out-of-town game in three years when the team defeated a fine Akron Hoban team.

Central also experienced bad times. On the way to the Division championship Central was upset by Scott on a rain-drenched field. And who can forget the shattering loss to St. Francis in the Shoe Bowl played under monsoon conditions.

Individual and team honors were numerous. Mike Scannell was named to the first team all-state squad. First team all-city honors went to Mike Scannell, Al Ludwikoski, Mike Pozniak, and Bill Montrie.

Andy Etzel, Rich Butler, and Steve Magnatta were second team selections, and Bill Zak, Dan Drennan, Marty Jan, and Rick Wilhelm made honorable mentions. Bill Montrie, Mike Scannell, and Mike Pozniak achieved All-Academic awards.

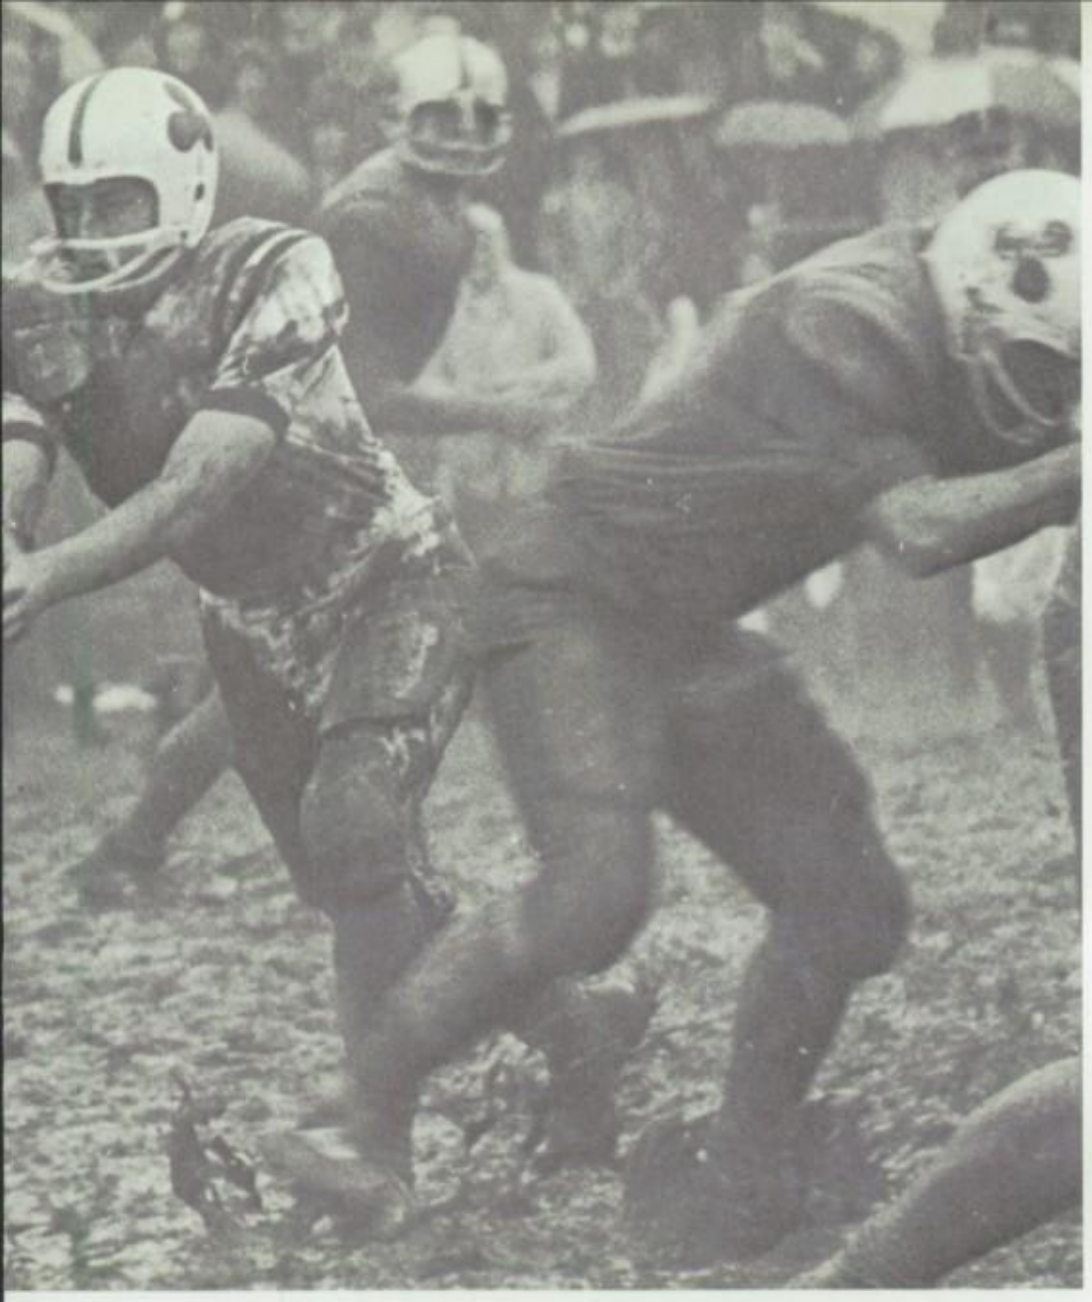
Kevin Harman hands off to Dan Drennan following Mark Gora's block late in the Championship Game.

DeVilbiss' Mel Gaines tackles Central's John Eggerstorfer after good yardage. As a result of the tackle Eggerstorfer was lost to the squad for the remainder of the season.

Bill Zak scores the first touchdown at the Akron Hoban game. Central clinched their first out of town victory in three years with a score of 14-8 against Akron Hoban.



Division Champs Attain Chance At City Title

On Thanksgiving Day, November 28, 1968, Central met the Knights of St. Francis at the Glass Bowl for one reason and one reason only. Their goal was the retention of the coveted Shoe Bowl trophy attained at the 1967 City Championship Game.

Mud and rain was the greatest hindrance in the entire competition. It was a defensive battle all the way. Neither team could gain much of anything through their offensive plays.

Central's 3 points came as a result of Rick "Drummer" Wilhelm's 21-yard field goal. But St. Francis' 45-yard drive in the second quarter was enough to put them ahead and later give them a victory.

Even though Central's spirit and determination was high, Coach Cordiak and his Irish team suffered defeat at the hands of St. Francis with a closing score of 8-3.

Rick Wilhelm puts Central on the scoreboard in the first quarter of the Mud Bowl Classic.

Junior Varsity Football Team

Central's JV football team, under the competent coaching ability of Mr. Dennis Bolbach, concluded another successful season. All during the season the JV's rehearsed drills and techniques at nightly practices, preparing them for rugged varsity competition.

Their hard work and dedication were evidenced in their wins over Macomber, DeVilbiss, and Rogers. The potential exhibited by the juniors should prove to be an asset for the varsity team next year.

Freshman Football Team

This year's edition of the Freshman football team proved to be one of the best ever. As a result of the hard work and persistence shown by Mr. Thomas Powers and his entire team, the Baby Irish compiled a very impressive season record.

The freshman team came out victorious over McTigue Jr., Bowsher, DeVilbiss, Macomber, and St. John. The team's only loss came at the hands of St. Francis' freshman team while their tie game was against Scott.

Central's future as a football power looks bright in view of the ability exhibited by the freshman team.

Cross-Country Team

The Cross-Country team under the coaching prowess of Mr. Joseph Rozanski saw a very successful season. Central's harriers boasted quite a number of victories.

They posted victories over Waite and Rogers, winning their first triangular meet in two years. The expressmen finished third in a quadrangular meet with Libbey, Scott, and Woodward.

Low points during the season came as the result of losses at the hands of Bowsher and DeVilbiss at the opening of the season. They also suffered defeat against St. John and St. Francis in a triangular meet.

Whether they were winning or losing, the team kept "plugging on" to be a fine representation of Central's sports' department.

Senior Pat Tucker, junior Bill Kolhoff, and senior Mark Stachowicz compete in a Cross-Country meet.

FRESHMAN TEAM: Row 1: B. Wambold, M. Mehling, B. Sanford, T. Sido, J. Sharrit, M. Satterthwaite, K. Anson, R. Montrie, T. Zak, J. Trease, J. Ryan, J. Burkhardt. Row 2: T. Wachowiak, J. Gray, J. Roundballers Compile 13-7 Record; Perz, Amrhein Cop City Honors

Under the direction of new Head Coach Pete Benedict, the 1968-69 Fighting Irish basketball team finished the season with an over-all record of 13-7. This included an 8-3 league mark, good for second place in the Red Division.

Inexperience was the major factor in causing the Irish to get off to a shaky start. Victories over St. John's and Cardinal Stritch were the only ones registered in the first seven games of the season.

The coming of the New Year 1969 began a "new year" for the Central cagers. The players started to work well together, looking like a polished unit. It was obvious that the experience gained in the first few games was invaluable. Characterized by a hounding defense, the Irish continually out-hustled their opponents, forcing them to make numerous mistakes. It was through this tenacious defense and well-balanced offense that Central began to jell as a team.

The turning point of the season was the weekend of January 3 and 4. Back-to-back victories over two good teams, Macomber and 1968 Class A champion Mansfield St. Peter's, headed the Fighting Irish in the right direction. These were just the first in a string of seven consecutive victories, highlighted by a 49-46 win over St. Francis at TU. Last season's loss to Woodward was also avenged during the Celts' torrid streak, as the Polar Bears came out on the short end of a 48-41 score in a game played at the Sports Arena.

Regular season action came to a close with the twin-killing of DeVilbiss and Whitmer on the final weekend. These two victories raised the Irish record to 11-6.

Cagers Travel Down Tourney Trail, Defeated By Cowboys In Sectional

As tournament time approached the Irish found themselves at the peak of efficiency. In the first game of sectional action it was Central versus Clay. What was predicted to be a close exciting game turned out to be a romp, as the Irish completely outclassed their opponents. The score at the end of the first quarter was 23-8 favoring the Celts. Clay never recovered as Central came out on top 75-62.

Back in action the next night, the Fighting Irish faced a St. John's team with an upset in mind. Stalling tactics almost provided the Titans with their second tournament victory. With 13 seconds left in the game Coach Pete Benedict called time out. Working for the last shot the Irish ran their offense until Captain Bob Johnson found himself open. He sank the shot with one second remaining to give Central a 33-31 win.

The season's finale was against state-ranked Libbey in a super-sectional game at Whitmer. The Irish put up a valiant effort before losing 59-42.

JV Basketball Team

Central's Junior Varsity under the able leadership of Mr. Robert Sturek posted a 7-8 season record.

The J.V.'s started the season very slowly, facing a tough City-League schedule. However, after the acquisition of freshman sensation Tim Rybczynski, the team gained momentum. Each week, gaining more composure and aggressiveness, the J.V.'s went on to win four out of their last five games.

Highlights of the season included the out-of-town victory against Mansfield St. Peters and a second victory over arch-rival St. Francis. All season long, the sophomores were led by sharpshooters, Bob Martin, Don Helvey, and Jim Willard.

Freshman Basketball Team

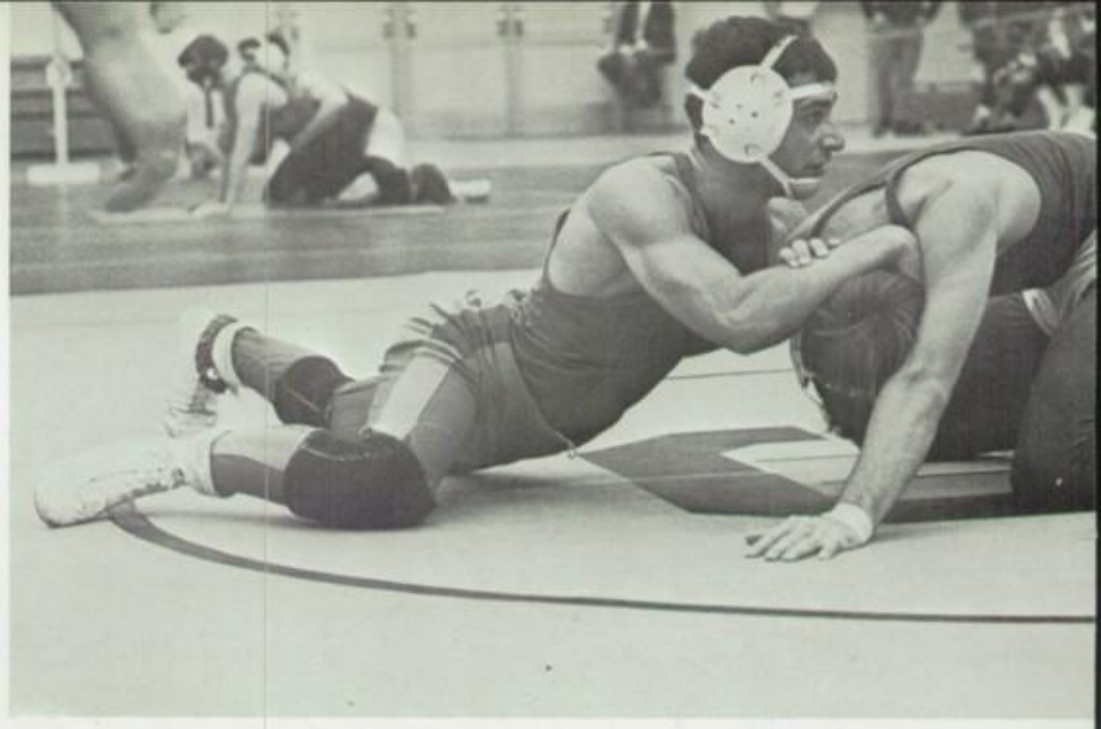
The Irish tradition of fine Freshman Basketball teams kept in tune during the 1968-69 season.

A fine nucleus of players combined with aggressive, hustling desire paved the way as the Baby Irish captured both the Freshman City Championship and the Freshman Catholic Championship.

Under the first-year leadership of Mr. Robert Agoston, the bantams posted a 11-2 record, including 10 wins and only 1 loss in the city.

Leading the freshmen this year were "Seemy" Jacobs, Tim Rybczysnki, and John Koehl.

Grapplers Place 7th In City Meet



Dave Ember, city champion at 120 pounds, maneuvers to hold his opponent at bay in tournament action.

Irish grapplers, under the first-year direction of Mr. Dennis Bolbach, charted a 2-6 season record while competing in the Red Division.

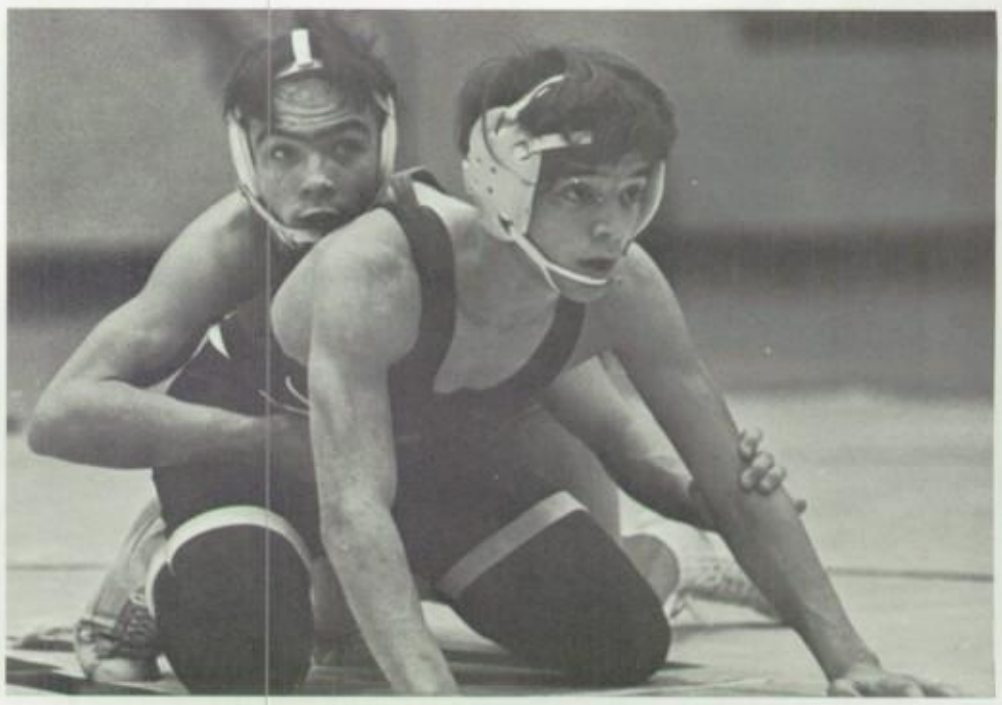
The matmen were paced all season by the capable leadership of seniors Dave Ember and Joe Blaze. After a frustrating dual-meet season, the team went on to capture seventh place in the City Championship match, led by All-City Dave Ember's championship victory in the 120 class.

Senior members included Dave Ember (18-5), Joe Blaze (13-6), Joe Carone (10-7), Tom Keller (4-6-1), George Ceravolo (8-7-1), and Jim Addis who was injured early in the year and went on to coach the JV's in three matches.

Highlighting the season according to senior Joe Blaze was Central's big win over the Bowsher Rebels, considered one of the stronger teams in the area.

Returning grapplers for next year's team include J. Abair (103), B. Kanary (112), M. Rzymek (133), T. Cheney (138), T. Ember (165), and S. Magnatta (175).

JV wrestlers fought a tough schedule enroute to a 7-1 record. An early season loss to St. Francis was the only blemish on their record. Counted on for varsity help next year are Fred Rzymek, Mike Ott, and Jerome Addis.



Co-captain Joe Blaze prepares to restrain his opponent during the two-minute riding time period.

Track Team

Celtic Cindermen under the direction of Mr. Thomas Powers concluded their 1968 season with a 9-3 season record. Much effort contributing to the over-all success of the team was exhibited by Jim Ferstle '69 who won regional, district and city contests.

CoachPowers is very sure that his 1969 track team will equal if not surpass the record compiled by the '68 team. Much is expected from the returning lettermen, Rick Christoph, Mark Stachowicz, and Bill Kolhoff who have been elected the tri-captains of this year's team. Bringing together lettermen and newcomers the track men are assured a fine season.

Celtic harriers compete in a track meet while their enthusiastic coach Tom Powers checks time.

Teams Participate In Spring Leagues

Bowling Team

This year's Irish Bowling team is made up entirely of senior veterans. The Celtic keglers led by captains, Jerry Knierim and Dave Sobczak, compete against a number of the Toledo and area high schools.

Meeting for games every Saturday at Hagerty Lanes, the team is completely self-supporting.

All team members have improved a great deal over last year's team. With such an abundance of talent and experience they have no choice but to come up victorious at the end of the year.

Tennis Team

This year's boy's tennis team under the first year direction of Fr. dePaul looks forward to a very successful season. Our Irish netters seem very optimistic as to the over-all success of the season.

Much in the line of experience and ability is expected from this season's returning lettermen, Kevic Saco, Jim Schmakel, Bob Wilson and George Joniec. With the return of these veterans and the addition of newcomers the tennis team should post a successful season record.

TENNIS TEAM: Row 1: J. McCartney, D. Nisch, A. Dudek, R. Fehlen, J. Johnston, J. Fackelman, E. Maier, S. Mayers, M. Christmyer, Row 2: Fr. dePaul, J. Jakowski, K. Saco, J. Schmakel, A. Etzel, B. Wilson, R. Taylor, R. Morris, G. Henry, W. Mitro.

Golf, Baseball Swing Into Spring, Look Forward To Successful Season

Golf Team

Our 1968 Irish Golf team under the coaching ability of Mr. Joseph Rozanski concluded the '68 season by missing the Red Division title by 2 points or 17 strokes.

Central's 1969 linksters under senior captains, Tony Joseph and Jim Chmielowicz, look forward to city, district and state tournament competition. With a mid-March season opening, the team practiced both indoors and outdoors with the aid of new equipment.

Much is expected from returning lettermen, Mike Naber, Mike McNamee, Dave Narewski, and Joe Szenderski.

Baseball Team

Under the coaching prowess of Mr. James Cordiak, Central's diamondmen concluded their 1968 season with a 13-3 record. The entire team advanced themselves clinching the city, sectional, and district titles. They were stopped in regional semi-finals in a game against Troy High School.

Central's 1969 baseball team is under the first year leadership of Mr. Robert Agoston. With a fine group of returning lettermen, Coach Agoston expects a fine season. His optimism can be substantiated by the ability and determination exhibited at pre-season drill and practice sessions. Their goal is evident—another City Championship.

Co-captain Jim Chmielowicz takes a few practice swings before the big match with Bowsher.

Good Sportsmanship - Aim Of GAL

Girl's Athletic League

For a number of years now, the Girl's Athletic League has offered to the girls of Central a chance to make something of themselves. The GAL offers various activities in which any of its members can and is encouraged to participate.

Members of GAL participate in ping-pong tournaments, ski-trips, basketball, volleyball, bowling, horseback riding, swimming and tennis. There is Catholic school and intramural competition in basketball and both public and private competition in tennis. The girl's tennis team plays in the city league.

A banquet is held at the end of the school year to pay honor to all of the members who took part in the activities. Awards are presented to the outstanding members and to the girls who have accumulated a number of points based on their activities.

The Girl's Athletic League is under the direction of Mrs. Maureen Verb and Miss Frances Krompak. Both of these ladies have done an outstanding job in organizing and coordinating the numerous activities. As an end result of their labors the GAL has evolved into a fine organization.

Officers of GAL are elected by the membership. This year's president was Margie Rihacek, a senior. The vice-president was Colleen Corrigan, a senior, and junior Cindy Poirer as secretary. The post of treasurer was held by sophomore Peggy McNamara while Terry McNamara a freshman was sergeant-at-arms. These girls along with the moderators have worked hard for the good of the entire group.

GAL has succeeded in its goal of producing well-rounded individuals. It has completely abandoned the fable that sports is for the male of the species and has instilled in its girls an interest in competitive sports. Since competition is more or less the basis of our society these young ladies will be fully prepared to meet and overcome obstacles which confront them in the future.

GAL moderators, Mrs. Maureen Verb and Miss Frances Krompak, take a minute out of their busy day to enjoy some guitar music.

Irish Lassies Spark School Spirit, Generate Warmth, Enthusiasm, Zip

Varsity Cheerleader, Darcey McGrath, a one-year member of the group, "does her thing" at one of the basketball games.

Cheerleaders

Neither rain, snow, sleet, or hail ever stopped our cheerleaders from exhibiting spirit and enthusiasm. They were always ready to give their all when they were needed.

Whether we were up or down their voices could be heard leading the student body in a cheer. Their voices seemed to grow even louder when we were down.

This spirited "bunch of girls" instilled a spirit that could withstand an indefinite number of losses as well as wins. Central is privileged and should be proud that these girls give so much of themselves for the benefit of the school.

Dancing Irish

Throughout the entire school year Central's Dancing Irish have acted as goodwill ambassadors. Their dance routines further exemplified the Irish spirit and dedication that has made Central so well-known.

The girls were all chosen on the basis of their dancing ability. Since many girls try out only the very best are chosen. Imagination and poise are also requirements of the members since the girls design their own costumes and develop their own dance routines.

Co-ordinator of the half-time dancers is Mrs. Maureen Verb. The time and energy exerted by her and the entire group have made it what it is—a truly fine representation of Central!

organizations

Council Initiates, Enforces, Reforms

Sharing the responsibilities and joys of leading the student body are Student Council officers Patricia Polcyn, treasurer; Geoffrey Grubb, president; Karen Fanelly, secretary; and John Seeman, vice-president.

One of the more important objectives of this year's Student Council was to instill pride and spirit in the student body.

To generate these important facets of school life, SC sponsored several spirit-promoting activities—a Super-Sweetie Contest, Color Day, and Spirit Week. At various times during Spirit Week, Centralites were asked to don crazy shoes, red and gray buttons, and Irish green. Bonfires and pep rallies before several football and basketball games highlighted the athletic seasons.

Other responsibilities of Student Council included the organization of several activities and drives. Among these were the Catholic Chronicle, Car-O-Sell, and the United Appeal.

One of Central's larger groups, SC well represents the majority of the Irish. Members vary from Council officers and commissioners to class officers and the student senators. All members are given a chance to discuss and vote on Council business.

Holding an office can mean gaining recognition, but it also carries certain responsibilities. Discussing numerous class projects are class presidents Kenneth Nisch, freshman; Mark Stachowicz, senior; Joseph Wernert, junior; and Joseph Szmania, sophomore.

Direction of school activities is the job of senior commissioners Patricia Maurer, art; Alan Ludwikoski, athletics; Margaret Patro, merit; Patrice Oliver, public relations; Debra Collum, spiritual; Richard Perz, social; Carolyn Borgess, elections; William Montrie, traffic; Bernita Borer, merit; Debra Sharrit, publicity; Judith Lebowsky, social; and Lynn Lanzinger, elections. Commissioners take care of such duties as providing posters for all football and basketball games, sponsoring the election of class officers, and directing the student traffic between classes. Spirit Week and Crazy Shoe Day were also among the activities.

Mr. Gerald DePrisco, Music Department chairman, leads the band at hald-time.

Managers Maneuver Music Machine

Under the dedicated guidance of three accomplished musicians, Central's Music Department has written finis to another season.

Beginning in the heat of the summer, the 1968-69 Marching and Concert Band, under the management of department head Gerald V. DePrisco, spent hours practicing for upcoming events. With the helping hand of Mr. Robert Gable, assistant director, the band added football games, pep assemblies, and concert tours to its long list of performances, reaching a climax with the annual Lawn Concert and graduation.

Guided by the baton of Miss Julia Kurtyka, the 1968-69 Orchestra progressed through nine months of work and enjoyment, culminating in "Camelot", the 1969 operetta.

Prior to the musical, appearances at school assemblies, a guest performance at the senior play "Inherit the Wind", and the Christmas show highlighted the itinerary.

Miss Julia Kurtyka conducts the orchestra at an assembly performance.

Talent, Harmony Combine In Chorus

The Senior Glee Club has worked hard and long to develop quality talent and harmony. Once achieved, these elements are so easily part of the organization.

Lead by Mr. Gerald V. DePrisco, a fourteen-year veteran director, and Mrs. Carolyn See-man, piano accompanist, the eighty-nine-member ensemble has demonstrated its talent in a variety of ways.

School assemblies, the football banquet, and the annual Christmas tour were on their busy agenda. The third annual "Sounds of Christmas" highlighted the yuletide season. Individual and group talent was exhibited in this year's musical production, "Camelot". A climax was reached with the farewell group appearance at the graduation exercises.

Time, Effort Aim For Perfection

Coaching Alters Individual Sounds

Under the experienced direction of Mrs. Carolyn Seeman, the vocal talents of the underclassmen were transformed from several individual sounds to one uniquely professional strain.

Much time and effort was utilized by both students and teacher aiming at one objective. They were striving for the perfection that would make them eligible for membership in the Senior Glee Club.

All their time was not spent in practice, though. The Freshman Girls Chorus, the Freshman Boys Chorus, and the Junior Glee Club combined their talents with the remainder of the Music Department in the Christmas assembly, as well as in the annual Christmas concert.

Several well-chosen selections added to the striking success of these vocal exhibitions. The Junior Glee Club selected melodies such as "Gesu Bambino," "Do You Hear What I Hear?" and the "African Noel," while the Freshman Chorus entertained the audiences with tunes including "A La Nanita Nana," "Carol of the Friendly Beasts," and the favorite "Ding-Dong Merrily on High."

The Junior Glee Club benefits from the use of music paid for by the government. Filing some selections are B. Fiechey, S. Haberstock, S. Snoad, S. Ellis, D. Osborne, P. Anaya, D. Montrie, K. Graves, and S. Zawierucha.

The Freshman Girls Chorus conveys the holiday spirit to their audience as they add their talent to the annual Christmas concert, "Sounds of Christmas," held at the Sports Arena on December 22.

The Freshman Girls Chorus includes ROW ONE: J. Weiser, B. DerManelian, J. Lacure, L. Sturniolo, C. Hanham, S. Madden, C. Nowak, J. Kime, B. Dutkowski, C. Gora, K. Skaff, C. Swicegood, M. Nosey Newsers Produce Pop Paper

What earns a first class rating for a school paper? In the case of the 1968-69 Centric the formula is co-editors Kathleen Sheahan and Robert Freeland, 49 eager journalists, and moderator Sr. St. Jude OSU.

Besides learning the tricks of the writing trade, the penmen also received an apprenticeship in business administration and financing, ad managing, newspaper circulation, and correspondence.

Informative and helpful columns, such as "Zap Line" and "Share It with Sharrit" brought new dimensions to the paper. A reduction in the number of issues and an initiation of staff paste-up added to the changes.

Page editors and co-editors supervise each individual page. Responsible for the first and second pages are Ann McCarty, Bonnie Brand, Sandra Oberdier, Patricia Maurer, Kathleen McGovern, Christine LaVoy, Deborah Agosti, and Susanne Kolasinski.

On the scene reporters who thrive on the latest news are the members of the news staff. They are Cathy Nartker, Janet Owczarzak, Sandra Zawodny, Joyce Hojnicki, Candace Devine, Catherine Rynski, and Christopher Cheney.

Meeting the deadline for the third and fourth pages are page editors and co-editors (standing) Claudia Finn, William Sweeney, Michael Naber, William Montrie, and Linda Kotlewski. (Seated) Kathleen Morrison, Michael Scannell, and Diane Pojedynski arrange a lay-out before it goes to the printer.

Co-ordinating the work of the staff are Robert Freeland and Kathleen Sheahan, co-editors.

Overseeing Centric finances and soliciting are members of the business staff. Included are (standing) Mary Valentine, Noreen Leyden, Anne-Marie Czubek, and Dennis Strahm; (seated) Georgianne Czerniak, Paula Jarzynski, Donna Kornos, and Robert Belkofer.

Writing copy for feature stories are Rosemary Rejent and David Chelminski while Sharon Wolniewicz and Mary Lou Puszczewicz offer their advice.

The job of the sports staff is not only accomplished through coverage of games but also through personal interviews. David Ember, Ralph Reitz, Carol Sido, Gregory Czaja, and Debra Sharrit question football star James Olsen, also a member of the staff, while William Conklin telephones to check on some statistics.

Patience Plus Effort Equals Quality

Deciding which pictures to use can often be a difficult task. Judith Maloney; Christine Gunselman; Joyce Hojnicki, editor; and Linda Kotlewski choose photos for the student life and organizations sections.

Early September found 21 busy students already planning layouts, copy, and pictures for the 1968-69 version of the Centripetal.

Dedication was the outstanding characteristic possessed by these staff members who sought to capture the fleeting highlights of a school year and record them between the covers of the yearbook. Moderator Sr. St. Jude OSU instilled in them the momentum necessary to meet deadlines.

This year the Centripetal broke with tradition and set up a new manner of producing the annual. Under this new system, work was divided among several sections, each falling under the jurisdiction of a section editor. Co-editors were replaced by a managing editor, who supervised the day by day production rate.

To keep up with modern trends, a new cover style was devised for Volume 49. After hours of careful planning and debate, an unusual combination of cloth and leather was chosen to add flavor and appeal. For the first time, seniors were able to have their names imprinted in silver on the cover, due to the success of the Patron Drive.

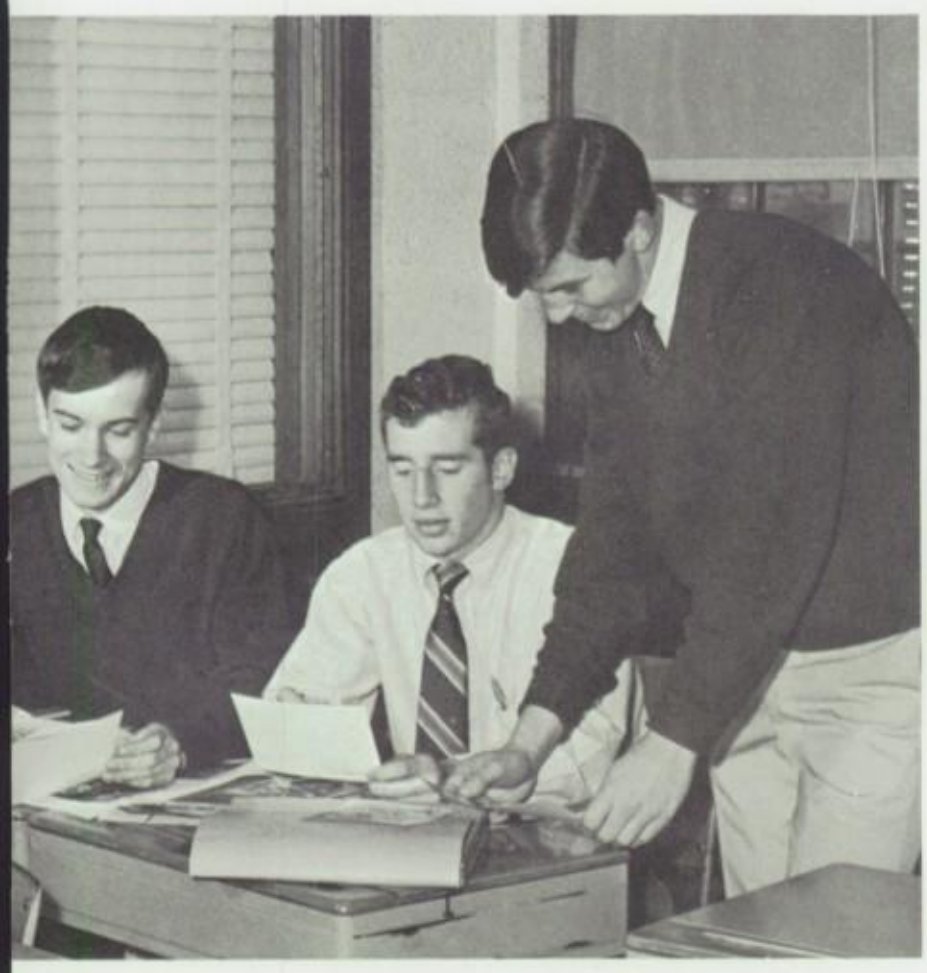
As deadline time approached, pictures were screened to see which would best recall enjoyable moments in the minds of Centralites in future years. It is with pride that the staff presents this year's version of the Centripetal.

Money matters, ads, and the patron drive are topics of discussion frequently hashed over by the business staff. Manager James Olsen, Robert Freeland, and Diane Pojedynski check on ad copy.

Giving his approval to a page layout is Kenneth Jackson, layout editor. Mary Mechel and Linda Elekonich engage Ken's help in planning the faculty section.

The mounting of underclass panels requires time, concentration, and loads of patience. Demonstrating their refined technique are Barbara Rygalski; Sandra Hodnicki, editor; Claudia Finn; and Christine Slomka, editor.

Pictures present a variety of problems to all staff members. Chief protographer John Morris explains a series of photographs to sports writers, Leonard Gurzynski, editor; James Olsen; and Harry Gardner.



Dotti Godlewski and Susan Osovich, co-editors, type up information for the senior section. James Bartok and Kathleen O'Shea check the material for changes before typing.

Debaters Begin On Encouraging Note

Brains, Skill Lead To Competition

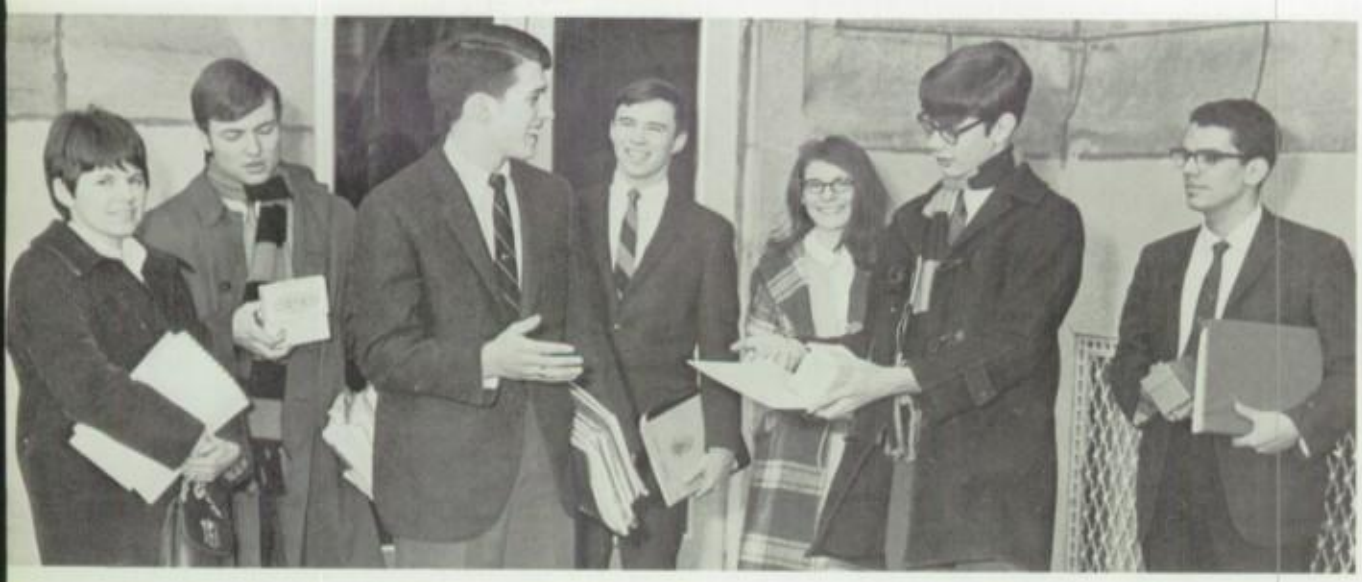
In just one year as a full-fledged organization, Central's debate team has established itself.

In its first tournament, the team placed second among schools such as state champ Start, state runner-up Whitmer, and Sylvania. In forthcoming competition, the debating eleven gained experience and poise building for the District meet held at Bowling Green.

Coach Mrs. Diane Hamilton and her squad missed going to the state tournament by one victory, finishing fifth in the district with a 3-3 record.

According to Mrs. Hamilton, this year's team has set a precedent that will be hard to follow in oncoming years. Thus far the team has brought home one trophy with hopes that more will be collected in the future.

Four members were chosen to represent Central in the District meet at Bowling Green. They are William Montrie, James Wright, Deborah Agosti, and Joseph Drouillard.



Rounding out the eleven debating members are Denise Killy, Richard Staszak, Gerald Knierim, Kevin Saco, Pamela Wells, Peter Gerken, and Richard Priest, on their way to a city match.

Quiz bowl participants display all-around academic knowledge while representing CCHS. At various practice sessions, members familiarized themselves with the buzzer system through trial runs. Contestants are Cynthia Judy, William Conklin, Joyce Hojnicki, and Michael Moszkowicz.

QUIZ BOWL

Early fall found twenty-one juniors and seniors drawing on their knowledge of history, math, the sciences, and literature. Of these students, four were pitted against McAuley on WSPD-TV's High School Quiz.

Semi-weekly practice sessions, conducted by Miss Mary Lee Rietzke and Miss Mary Smith, moderators, served in the elimination process. Sample tapes of previous shows and a scrimmage meet with the Libbey team preceded the television confrontation.

Students who won berths on the first chess team are (seated) Donald Freeland, Joseph Drouillard, (standing) John Bocik, and Steven Jagodzinski.

CHESS

Interested students have a chance to exhibit their game-playing talents via the chess team. Tournament games played last September displayed the ability of each contender. The outcome of those matches determined a member's status on either the first, second, or third teams.

Team moderator Fr. Keith OFMC supervised practice meets. City matches were often held in the school library.

Comprising the third team are (seated) Daniel Grabarczyk, Richard Koelsch, (standing) George Bires, Michael Pettee, and Gary Dutkiewicz.

Second-team members include Donald Freeland, Kathleen Sheets, and Michael Pettee.

Clubs Range From Classical To Modern

Languages Unite Diverse Cultures

Language clubs provide an extra opportunity for students to improve their ability to speak a foreign tongue. In addition, studying different cultures opens the doors to understanding and friendly relations among various countries in the modern world.

RUSSIAN

This year three ambitious students ventured to Start High School early each weekday in order to master the complicated Russian language. Fluency in other languages and a knowledge of basic English skills are a prerequisite for anyone wishing to learn the language of the Soviet Union.

FRENCH

Under the guidance of Sr. M. Elayne SND, French Club meetings were held featuring parties, movies, and discussions of the cultural aspects of France. For the second year in a row, members operated a French boutique at the International Festival.

SPANISH

With the help of Mrs. Michele Comes, the Spanish Club has completed another successful year. Guest speakers and a traditional Spanish Christmas party highlighted club activities.

GERMAN

The German Club, moderated by Sr. M. Adolph SND, participated in traditional activities this year. Members went Christmas caroling, built a German booth at the International Festival, and planned a trip to Frankenmuth, Michigan.

LATIN

Monthly meetings of the Junior Classical League included reports by members, filmstrips, and Latin exercises. JCL moderator Sr. M. Carmel SND helped members stage the annual Christmas Saturnalis, at which games were played and carols were sung in Latin.

Candace Devine, Christopher Cheney, and Catherine Rynski pause for a respite from their study of Russian.

French Club officers Joan Gogal, Cynthia Judy, and Mary Ann Starzynski observe the country's national flag, displayed by Ellyn Gozdowski.

Carol Stemple, Karen Bocian, Roberta Rzymek, and Judith Duck attempt to think of novel ideas for future sessions of the Spanish Club.

Club officers Pamela Wells, Donald Freeland, Deborah Skeldon, and Patrick Mack browse through literature they have collected on German customs.

Debra Montrie exhibits her knowledge of Latin by naming the days of the week to observant members of the Latin Club.

Academic Clubs Promote Knowledge

Several cultural clubs exist at Central for the purpose of spreading knowledge in particular fields of interest.

TAF

Under the guidance of Mr. Robert Stucker, the Theatrical Arts Forum planned several tours such as a trip to WTOL television station.

JCWA officers David McCormick, David Chelminski, and James Murawski look over with interest the information Gregory Melczak and Linda Wallace have compiled on current events.

Sr. Irene Marie helps students develop their artistic abilities through a newly-created program, Arts Prominent Energetics.

JCWA

The Junior Council on World Affairs, directed by Sr. M. Antoine SND, attempts to keep its members up to date on recent happenings across the globe. This year's activities included sponsoring the mock election, and representing Rumania and Egypt at a city-wide mock UN.

A.P.E.

Arts Prominent Energetics was formed this year with the guidance of Sr. Irene Marie RSM to uncover hidden artistic skills in Centralites.

NHS

This year the National Honor Society, under the guidance of Mrs. Velma Pfieffer, sponsored the annual College and Career Day and assisted with the Freshman Open House.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club, moderated by Sr. M. Natalie OSU, makes sure that all books are kept in good condition, and sponsor frequent Faculty Teas.

FTA

Future Teachers of America, under the direction of Sr. M. Clarisena RSM, concentrated on subjects relating to the field of special education this year.

Karen Schuller, Anne Marie Czubek, Jayne Ingham, Marsha Gardner, and Christine Pawlowski serve faculty members during a library tea.

Sr. Maura OSU demonstrates methods of education to members of the Future Teachers of America.

Ruth Konczal, Victoria Beauregard, Judith Kaminski, and Robert Belkofer, officers of the National Honor Society, discuss ideas for useful projects their club can undertake.

TAF officers Pamela Rynski and Mary Stein help Claudia Finn and Patricia Radecki plan upcoming tours to increase their knowledge of the theatre.

Thirst For Further Knowledge Prompts

Medical Horizon Club officers, Barbara Czelusta, Janet Stresen, Debra Collum, and Sharon Wolniewicz, tackle the often pleasant task of planning future meetings.

MEDICAL HORIZON CLUB

Under the competent leadership of their moderator, Sr. M. Patricia RSM, members of the Medical Horizon Club delve into several aspects of various medical careers. Participating in the MHC are juniors and seniors who are interested in furthering their knowledge in these fields. This is accomplished through movies and guest lecturers.

RADIO CLUB

Radio Club meetings, guided by Sr. M. Marguerite OSF, feature discussions of the parts of the radio and their functions. Members also tackle the problem of obtaining or renewing their novice licenses.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

Guest speakers, field trips, and demonstrations highlighted Chemistry Club activities for 1968-69. Under the guidance of Sr. M. Marlene OSF and the direction of club officers, monthly meetings were held to increase an interest in this branch of science.

(Standing) Robert Patro, Catherine Samson, Colleen Costain, Ted Grachek, (seated) Joanne Jensen, and Barbara Dianda, officers of the Future Scientists of America, examine newly acquired models of the human body.

Sandra Wiezbenski, Gregory Czaja, Michael Naber, and Catherine Rynski assume the roles of Chemistry Club officers. Space models used for class and club meetings are displayed in room 310.

Participation

STAGE CREW

Stage crew members are among the unsung heroes walking Central's halls. Working behind the scenes, members constructed sets for "Inherit the Wind" and "Camelot". The auditorium sound system and the lighting for the Christmas assembly are also handled by this organization. Ed Mical '69 assumed the duty of technical director.

FUTURE SCIENTISTS OF AMERICA

Determining one's blood type was the discussion topic for one of the meetings of the Future Scientists of America. Directed by Sr. M. Marcelline OSF, the club was split into two chapters, each chapter having its own officers. More commonly known as the biology club, the FSA included a number of other topics on its itinerary.

Michael Walsh, Michael Gilsdorf, Joseph Helminiak, Michael Nowak, and Gary Obee take an active interest in the radio and its parts.

Being a member of the stage crew involves hours of work on school plays and musicals plus other activities. (Kneeling) Christopher Cheney, Lawrence Nirschl, William Dunn, Timothy Finn, (standing) Frank Wisniewski, Edward Mical, Calvin Cousino, Stephen Murawski, Gerald Miller, Thomas Bohnsack, and Mark Wisniewski devote their efforts to constructing a set for "Camelot".

Religious Clubs Instill Concern, Love For Man

CATHOLIC STUDENTS MISSION CRUSADE

The Catholic Students Mission Crusade, through its annual Christmas Card and Medicine Drives, has kept Central abreast with other organizations in fulfilling the needs of missions all over the world. Voluntary pledges collected weekly revised the dues-collecting system. Acting as moderator is Sr. M. Elayne SND.

YOUTH INTERRACIAL COUNCIL

The newly developed Youth Interracial Council strives for better racial understanding at Central, as well as throughout the entire city. Discussion meetings and a city-wide meeting at McAuley High School highlighted the year. The McAuley meeting was entitled "What is Black Power?" Sr. M. Patricia RSM was elected by members as moderator, with Sr. M. Goretti OSF assisting in various YIC activities.

BIG SISTERS

Helping bridge the gap between junior and freshman girls is the Big Sisters Club. This somewhat new organization, under the supervision of Sr. M. F. Cabrini OSF, consists of junior girls willing to put out time and effort to welcome incoming freshman girls to Central. Each junior is responsible for familiarizing her assigned frosh with CCHS traditions and rules.

YOUNG CHRISTIAN STUDENTS

Another organization which supports student expression is the Young Christian Students. This organization, advised by Fr. Ernest, encourages students to discuss their feelings and opinions with fellow classmates. Study weekends with students outside the Toledo area, tutoring in the inner city, and cleaning of ghetto neighborhoods prompted club members to act on social change.

Members of YIC are involving themselves in a sincere Christian effort to bridge the gap between races. Leading the effort at Central are R. Binkowski, S. Ellis, L. Wallace, S. Ellis, and V. O'Connor.

Medicine and first aid supplies are collected from doctors in the Toledo area by CSMC members, then packaged and sent to foreign countries in need of aid. Sorting supplies under the supervision of Sr. M. Elayne SND are D. Lewandowski, J. Mazuchowski, J. Erd, and S. Sarnowski.

The Big Sisters is a newer organization at CCHS. Formed to help incoming freshman girls become acquainted with standing traditions and customs, it is composed of junior girls who are willing to provide a warm welcome. Heading the group are P. Bacik, S. Kessler, L. Macke, M. Corrigan, and K. Delp.

YCS attempts to give Central youth a chance to discuss their feelings and opinions with interested peers. They also do a great deal to make it possible for Toledo Students to meet with those from other cities. Organizing these activities are W. Szymanski. R. Skaff, Fr. Ernest, moderator, D. Agosti, and T. Gray,

Grateful Good Wishes

to

Very Reverend

John L. Harrington,

S.T.B., M.A.

FATHER FRIEND EDUCATOR

PRINCIPAL OF
CENTRAL CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

1940 – 1968

TOLEDO PRINCIPAL OF THE YEAR
1967 — '68

Your leadership led us to face every challenge;

Your guidance made our goals shine clear.

Our interests — with yours — spread to city, state, nation, world.

Our sparks of enthusiasm were fanned into winning flame by your ardor.

You gave us the savor of joy in every activity:

Humility's ballast in the thrill of victory,

Strength of sportsmanship under defeat;

You led us to glory in city and state.

You were given the grace to be Shepherd of Souls —

The rare understanding of problems of youth —

To be a LEADER.

to the new graduates

As parents, neighbors, and friends we naturally have a special interest in the quality of our schools.

No community is better than its schools, and no school is better than the determination and willingness of a community to support standards high enough and broad enough to meet tomorrow's levels of need, both vocationally and for citizenship.

If you're curious about Fiberglas* just ask a quarterback. Or a racing driver. Or a professional golfer. Or a marine engineer. Or practically anybody. We figure about 30,000 better ways have been found to use Fiberglas products and materials to replace steel, wood, aluminum or cloth. If you want to help find better uses for Fiberglas, and have a challenging career, keep us in mind.
